Joe McMullen Head Coach Of Stetson University Is Speaker

Lending some of his enthusiasm for coaching, Joe McMullen, head coach at Stetson University, addressed a group of approximately 150 who attended the South Shore Athletic and annual banquet last Friday night at the Country Club.

McMullen, speaking on "Why a Coach Loves to Coach," emphasized the importance of coaching on boys through example as well as teachings of sportsmanship and congeniality. He was introduced by Coach H. D. Leavitt, who also presented Stetson's assistant coach, Gene Stouber.

E. M. Lively, master of ceremonies, introduced heads of local organizations present, Mrs. E. M. Lively, PTA; Herman Close, Lions; Bill Graber, Chamber of Commerce; Sam Henderson, South Bay Lions; E. C. Mapp, VFW; Guy Bender, Jr., American Legion. Athletic council members present were introduced by Coach H. D. Leavitt, who also presented Stetson's assistant coach, Gene Stouber.

Each of the organizations in Belle Glade, as heretofore, will have its members scheduled for reporting during the day, with the plan to have each organization as near 100 per cent for those eligible as practicable. Many organization members who for one reason or another are unable to be present are asking members of the family or friends to attend.

Mr. Roberts wants those who will give blood to avoid eating fats including milk products for at least 6 hours prior to giving blood—by no means should anyone have milk or cream in the morning's coffee.

Scheduling and facilities are being arranged to prevent any waits by those who donate blood.

SPIRITUAL SUPERIORITY KEY TO WORLD POSITION SAYS MINISTER FORD

The Rev. R. E. Ford, Presbyterian minister told the Lions Club Wednesday night that "Bible has a strong, if not the strongest army of the times but lacked spiritual foundation; England had the strongest armed forces known for the times, but the Colonies kicked her around, because she lacked spiritual superiority."

"America, today," argued the minister "must watch her spiritual foundation if she expects to successfully combat the forces of the 'isms' rampant today."

Frank Dooley inducted as new members of the organization Ben Ryder, Dr. Victor Green and Bennie Richmond.

As the scholastic year ends Jerry Barry, Bobby Hooker and Marion Najarian were presented certificates of appreciation as well as gift tokens for work done in the Lions Club during the current year.

The State Convention at Daytona Beach will begin Sunday and local members attending are invited to be there for the registration.

ELKS AND LADIES WILL ENJOY BARBECUE RIBS AND CHICKEN SAT. NITE

Elks' wives and children in the Belle Glade Lodge are not passing fancies; they're taken seriously and to the extent that the lodge officially entertains them periodically. A couple of weeks ago the kids were treated to a Saturday afternoon fishing tournament.

Now comes the time for Mamma — she's specially invited to eat all the barbecue chicken and ribs she can and stick the old man at the right time Saturday night.

Ray Whitlock will preside at the barbecue pit, and that's not said—he always does this barbecueing up front.

Ball Withdraws In Favor Of Russell

James A. Ball, 21-year-old Florida State University senior from Belle Glade, withdrew last week as an unpledged candidate for Delegate to the National Democratic Convention from the Sixth Congressional District.

"As an unpledged candidate for delegate, I have carefully examined the platforms and qualifications of all the Presidential candidates. It is clear that there is one man who stands far above all others. This man is Richard B. Russell. He is a man of unquestioned integrity and of proven ability and stature. He is not only a Southerner but a statesman of national standing, and is deserving (Continued on page four)

WASHINGTON NEWS LETTER

From

WASHINGTON — One of my first political affiliations when I became 21 years of age and looked forward to casting my first vote was with the Young Democrats.

Many of my friends at my age, similarly moved by a desire to enter actively upon their careers of citizenship, joined me in this affiliation.

We were somewhat disappointed as time went on and our familiarity with the operations of the Young Democrats increased.

Awards For Excellence In Regular and Extra Curricular Activities Given

Thirty-three young ladies and young gentlemen will receive diplomas tonight certifying that a four-year course in high school has been satisfactorily completed; it's called commencement.

Sixteen high school students have been awarded acknowledgment for outstanding work both in the school room and for other works not commonly recognized a few years back—citizenship, best-all-around and best athlete.

Many of the students will wonder why the occasion is called "commencement." Well, many will begin to realize that serious life is just commencing; some will go along four years in college at the expense and concern of parents, and commencement will come to them suddenly some morning near the end of school or to the boys when "greetings" come from the Dear Old Uncle.

The pomp and ceremony and dignity of the occasion will loom larger as the years go by and the full significance of the period of life is realized.

Among those outsiders who will contribute to the appropriate dignity and solemnity of the occasion are the Rev. Ryan L. Wood who will deliver the main address, Mr. Howell L. Watkins, who will award the diplomas and the Rev. Wade H. Griffin, who will ask Divine Guidance for each.

The following are the graduates of this year's crop of New Citizens:

Pro Joe Ziemann is loud in his praises for Bill Graber. It seems that Bill has a lot of what Joe terms "the best top soil in the world" under his packinghouse and offered to give it to Joe. Not being able to find a truck available for the hauling, Joe was wondering if he ever would get the top soil. So, Bill Graber furnished his own trucks and hauled the soil for Joe.

These bugs will sometimes be discovered under the leaves, on top of the leaves, and especially down near the crown on the very new growth.

Now for some don'ts. The African violet does not like puddling. Do not water too often. Do not let stand in water for a long time. Do not let set in the hot sun under a window glass for very long. Do not set out in the yard. While some people say they grow their violets out under the trees, I have yet to see a healthy-looking plant treated in this manner. Do not set the plant so deep that the leaves touch the rim of the clay pot. Clay pots are conductors of moisture, and this moisture causes the leaves to rot. Do not treat roughly, as the stems are very brittle and liable to break. Do not let the plant go to seed. Keep all dead blooms pinched off. Do not fertilize haphazardly. The plant will set regularly and drink regularly.

In another article the writer will try to explain the propagation of this lovely house plant.

Myrr, busy as an interloper, said "MC successfully imitated topnotchers."

Sachm, Bradcock and his orchestra performed to the delight of the house.

Bandmaster "Dizzy Stick" Drake rendered a number on his clarinet to the assistance of Miss Browning, which brought down the house.

Mrs. Ed Lively as "Lena Horne" was encored several times for her imitation of that cream-colored crooner, and stood out as the outstanding number in the show.

While "Trouble" Hotard and Ed Lively were good end men, Gerold McKee as "Pork Chops" was a hunch.

Francis Morris did well with his joke telling.

Taken as a whole the show had more "it" than any traveling show, much because of the native ability of the performers as the local angle of personalities.

The performers had a big time and the coffers of the Glee Club which are under the sponsorship of the Lions were considerably added to.

The "Charcoal Dance Beauties" were Misses "Candy Lou" Close, "Rose Bud" Earwood, "Sugar Lump" Murray, "Nasartum" Assey, "Beulah" Hobson, "Sweet Molasses" Whillock, "Fanny Mae" Knight and "Tillie" Draa.

The Dixie Land Band was composed of Mr. Drake, H. Y. Draa, Dennis McDonald, Lee Bradcock and Jerry Brent with "Honey Boy" Hooker as conductor and Miss Browning as pianist.

Other performers on the program were: a harmonica solo by "Fitz" Martin, tap dance by "Hot Footsie" Sasser, piano solo by Mr. "Ivory" Pruitt and a good one, vocal alpha by "Sweet Pea" Hollis, accompanied by "Lindy Lou" Womack.

"Magnolia" Parsons at the piano as soloist and accompanist added much to the spirit of the show.

Mrs. "Midnight" Timmons tripped around sprightly as the show shine boy and had as much fun as did her two off-spring.

we are bound to suffer serious consequences," he emphasized.

He reminded his audience that before we can have a better world we must be a better people — before we can have a world brotherhood we are going to have to be and act brotherly.

The League of Nations did not fail the people, the people failed the League of Nations," he remarked.

"Pioneering is never easy and the most difficult conquest in the world is the mastery of the human heart," he stressed.

Concluding his sermon he urged the young men and women to be "courageous enough to cross these spiritual frontiers on a pilgrimage which will bring peace and understanding among men."

The school Glee Club, directed by Miss Marian Najarian, sang "Battle Hymn of the Republic," "God of Our Fathers" and "Glorious is Thy Name." The invocation was given by Rev. Fred Robbins and the benediction by Rev. Robert Ford. Mrs. W. C. Bamford and Miss Marian Najarian played the Processional and Recessional.

Revival services conducted by Rev. McCoy Bynum at Lake Harbor Baptist Church will conclude Sunday, with observance of annual "Homecoming Day."

Plans are being made for a sacred music concert following the "dinner on the ground." Rev. Ted Temoshchub, Pastor of Lake Avenue Baptist Church of West Palm Beach, will be the principal speaker at the afternoon service, which begins at 2:00 p. m. Several former pastors are expected.

The new Sunday School Building which is nearing completion, will be open for inspection, and will be also available for use in case of rain during the lunch hour.

The revival meetings, with Rev. Bynum, of Pensacola, as 6 speaker, are being conducted Escarole 0 21 7 402 nightly through this week, at 8 p. m. Special music, both instrumental and vocal, will be featured of the Sunday night revival, a tape recording of the message of Billy Graham, given by the recent Convention rally

REVEREND HOLLADY (Continued from Page 1) industrial and the first half of the 20th century has certainly been in the realm of science, he stated. "Many of the world leaders of today have the conviction that the frontiers of tomorrow will be reached in the area of human relations."

The real question facing the world of today is can we live together in a world like this? Unless this problem is solved," he said.

I can't go along with Gen. Sumter Lowry and B. E. Bushnell in their attempt to suppress the publication of information concerning the United Nations and the offering of a course on this subject by the University of Florida.

These gentlemen recently protested to the State Board of Control with reference to a course dealing with United Nations activities, designed to "help teachers understand and teach understanding of international planning and cooperation."

As individuals, Gen. Lowry and Mr. Bushnell have a right to their opinion. As free American citizens it is their privilege to think, speak and write as they please. If they choose to oppose the United Nations and condemn its activities, the Constitution and Bill of Rights grants them this privilege.

By the same token, every other citizen has the right to study and consider this or any other subject and form his or her own opinion with regard thereto. It is a duty and responsibility of our institutions of higher learning, especially those supported by public funds, to provide an opportunity of education to their students on all aspects of national and international affairs.

Any attempt, by whomsoever made, to control through and suppress public knowledge is contrary to the fundamental principles of freedom upon which the very existence of this nation depends.

Academic freedom is as important and necessary to the American way of life as freedom of speech or freedom of the press. Any attempt to suppress public knowledge and enlightenment is a dangerous trend.

Whether the United Nations is good or bad and whether this nation's participation in the program is right or wrong, is not the issue. The United Nations exists, and whether this nation's membership and participation in its activities. Thousands of American boys have given their lives and shed blood fighting under the United Nations flag.

No doubt many of the young men on the battle fields of Korea have doubts in their hearts regarding the United Nations and would like to know more about it. Among students at the University of Florida are other young men who may soon be called to serve the United Nations. Are we to say to them "Fight for it, YES, but learn about it, NO?" If this be so, then we might go a step further and demand that our schools and colleges make no further mention of the War Between the States on the ground that one side or the other was wrong and therefore, any knowledge of this historic struggle is dangerous to the national welfare.

In voicing their opposition to the Board of Control, Messrs Lowry and Bushnell contend that the United Nations and its agencies seek to subordinate the United States to a central government and reduce its role to Socialism.

Others, including the State Department, many members of Congress and countless civic and business leaders, do not share this view. They look on the United Nations, even with its admitted faults and weaknesses, as offering the only hope for future world peace and understanding. They would retain this framework as a foundation on which to build a peaceful world in which enlightened mankind would subordinate law and order for eternal armed conflict.

I conceived that in the present circumstances of world affairs it is imperative that this nation maintain its armed strength and prepare itself against any aggression, but at the same time I feel that the welfare not only of our people but that of all peoples demands that we also give serious thought and effort to the subject of world peace, brotherhood and understanding.

Whether we gain that end through the United Nations or an organization of some other name is inconsequential. War can lead only to destruction, and the hope of the world today lies in the hearts and minds of those courageous men and women who seek some means of creating a peaceful world other than a struggle through each nation resorting to an armed camp and employing our God-given resources for destructive purposes to a point where we find ourselves crushed beneath this aimless burden.

When this nation was struggling to find itself there were those who fought federation as bitterly and doggedly as some people are opposing world federation today. Is it too much to hope that, if we put our minds and hearts to it, we some day will solve the problem of a peaceful world?

DATELINE FLORIDA

By Ed Frick
Florida's favorite friend Tom Moore will be back in Winter Haven next year for 26 weeks of broadcasting his popular "Radio Show." This is the first of the series, a give-away type of program on Mutual Network, have been raised by the Winter Haven Chamber of Commerce, Florida Citrus Commission and the faithful Dick Pope of Cypress Gardens.

This column boys in recognition to the grand job being done by Beverly Grizzard and his State Advertising Commission in publicizing Florida! A recent survey showed that tourists are bringing $160 in new income to the state for every dollar put out by the commission, and they are operating on a budget that should be doubled in dollars.

Construction of a $30,000 marine biological research laboratory is underway at Marine Studios, site of the world's oceanarium. The new structure will be known as Marine Research Laboratory and will promote research in marine biology. The po' little fishes won't have a life of their own from now on... with a bunch of scientists peering at them from behind big sheets of glass.

The Florida Farm Bureau says that California may go out of the orange business altogether if the past 20-year trend continues. The Bureau says that oranges represent 34.2 per cent of all cash receipts from farming in Florida, as compared with 20.6 in 1930... but in California, receipts have dropped from 14.6 per cent to 3.4 per cent for the same period. Best business to get into in California these days is an umbrella shop, it looks like, for all they have left is rain.

Total installation of telephones on Florida's west coast has jumped over 200 per cent since World War II, says Pennington. Telephone Company. There are now over 175,000 telephones in use in this area, they say. Why is it that at least 100,000 of these telephone users ring my number by mistake in the early morning hours?

I like the story about the tourist in St. Petersburg who, getting tired of standing while waiting for a bus, pressed on the back: "Compliments of a Damnyanke!" The city fathers just smiled at the bench and inscription and let them both stand.

The State Road Department has announced that bids on construction of the state's second tourist welcome station will be opened in Tallahassee on May 8. Expected to cost $50,000, the new welcome station will be located near the Alabama line west of Marianna. Plans call for free orange juice, road maps and information to be supplied to incoming tourists.

Seen these self-test quizzes in so many of the national magazines? The ones that tell you if you are dumb, normal or a genius? Well, now you can take a similar test put out by Lumbermen's Mutual Casualty Insurance Company to find out if you are "accident-prone" while driving the family jalopy. I took the test and found I'm in the "dumb" class... guess I'm just a menace on the highways!

Things I didn't know before Dept. National Tax Freedom Holiday will fall on May 19 this year. What is NTFH? That is the first day on which the Florida State Retailers Association says a man in the U. S. can call a dollar his own. The retailers figure that this year all the money the average American earns from January 1 to May 15 must be paid out in local, state or federal taxes. From then on all the money you earn is yours, brother... after all, you have to spend a little something on beer and cigarettes.

The eyes of Florida's fresh water fishermen must be buging these days... watching them seining the fish from several of the lakes in Central Florida. The State Game and Fresh Water Fish Commission reports a haul of 20,000 pounds the first day from Lake Wales. Eustis. They netted gar and gizzard shad, which were destroyed, catfish, shell crackers, bream and crabs. All the bass, taken were tagged and put back in the water. I'd sure like to catch a bass wearing a license once. I'd feel that we were both legal.

Our school closing activities have been well planned and we have secured the service of the Rev. Milton Payson, pastor of Mt. Zion A.M.E. Church, Belle Glade, Florida, as our Commencement Speaker. We would like very much for every one to be present to hear our children's sermon on May 25th at 10:00 A. M. at the New Hope Baptist Church. With its 180 HP V-8 engine, on 125 1/2 inches of wheelbase, many people think the Saratoga is the best Chrysler car of all.

We invite you to take the wheel and feel what happens! There's a new sense of ease, power, of reserve power that make driving a new experience.

Its revolutionary combustion chamber develops more of the power in each charge than any other engine can do. One result is performance, even on sumpmum fuel, such as you have never felt. Another result is new economy. It's an engine that scarcely forms carbon at all. It creates less heat. It will last much longer, stay younger on the way!

And with Chrysler full-time Power Steering, you steer with one-fifth the usual effort... drive with five times the usual control! With Power Brakes you need up to ten-thirtieths less foot pressure... and still stop in many feet less than other cars can do.

JOSEPH A. O'MALLEY
GENERAL SALES MANAGER

Production of the 100,000th Chrysler equipped with the 180 horsepower Fire Power V-8 engine has been announced by Joseph A. O'Malley, general sales manager of Chrysler Division, Chrysler Corporation.

"We have orders on hand from our dealers for 35,000 FirePower V-8's," O'Malley reported. "We are confident that this revolutionary V-8 engine continues to increase as owners tell their friends of its ability to provide top performance without using premium gasoline and at the same time provide smooth, effortless operation which contributes to safe driving when power is most needed," O'Malley said.

He said that in April, 1952, 65 per cent of the more than 11,000 Chryslers shipped were FirePower V-8's.

"Business is good and the trend on the part of Chrysler buyers is toward the FirePower V-8," O'Malley said. "In April we shipped about 7,000 FirePower V-8 equipped Chryslers. This is an increase of 23 per cent over V-8 shipments for March."

"FirePower V-8 sales offer evidence of the public desire for increased performance," O'Malley said, pointing out that in the first four months of 1952, more than 25,000 FirePower V-8's were shipped to dealers throughout the United States. "This is an increase of more than 85 per cent over shipments for the same period in 1951 and clearly indicates to us that as the public becomes acquainted with the performance benefits available with the FirePower V-8, sales of this remarkable engine will further increase."

LESS FLORIDA FARMS THAN SIX YEARS AGO

Thirty-nine of Florida's 67 Counties have fewer farms today than they had in 1945, according to the research department of the Florida Farm Bureau.

As a whole the state has lost about 4,000 farms during the past six years, the Bureau points out, adding that "this follows a national trend. Today there are about 10 million farm workers in the nation compared with 12.1 million in 1910."

SMATHERS LETTER

The pattern was something like this:

(1) Few holding offices in the organization seemed interested in any activity except during political campaigns.

(2) The leaders of the organization seemed interested in: (a) making political deals and then (b) policing the organization in an effort to get all the members to follow their lead at the ballot boxes.

Within recent weeks, I accepted an invitation to address the Florida Young Democrats.

When I got there and looked around, I threw away my prepared speech and spoke from the cuff. I said a few things that had been boiling inside me for some 15 years.

Not many youthful Democrats were there.

I spoke from my heart, and not from manuscript, because I looked around and saw many of the same old faces that had been pulling the strings 15 years ago.

The scene came to mind again the other day when I received a letter from a Florida hotel man, who suggested a Senior Democratic Club for those past the age making them eligible as Young Democrats.

I am for any movement of this kind, if it will only pull the die-hard oldsters out of the Young Democrats and leave that organization to youth.

It has been a matter of concern to me for some time that so few of the younger generation of voters are being brought into the organizations which belong to them. The older generations should recognize their responsibility for encouraging organizational training of the rising generations. But they should surrender to the young men and women the organizations and operational direction of Young Democrats and move along to make way for youth and youthful thinking. It is in that way that we can assure our nation a continuing supply of leadership and alert, active citizenry. Too many of our older citizens have persisted, sometimes for selfish, political reasons, in holding on to the reins of the Young Democrats long after these kingmakers have passed their days of youth. In other words, we must work to make the Young Democrats in fact as well as name which is their right.

SEVERAL HUNDRED HORSES TO BE USED BY SHIRINERS IN CONVENTION PARADE

Horses from the 11 Shrine Mounted Patrols, are going to Miami June 16-20 for the Imperial Council Session, and will be stabled at the Hialeah track in the second stalls which housed Citation, Styne, Whirlaway, War Admiral, Assault and other famous races, it was announced recently by Harry C. Ebright, director general of the convention.

Temples sending Mounted Patrols are Lu Lu of Philadelphia, Murat of Indianapolis, Zuhrah of Minneapolis, Moolah of St. Louis, Ararat of Kansas City, Yaarah of Atlanta, Zamora of Birmingham, Antioch of Clayton, Ohio, Mirza of Pittsburgh, and Jerusalem of New Orleans. In addition to these 268 horses the Alleppo Temple of Boston will use horses supplied locally.

Twice during the convention, the horses will be brought from Hialeah to downtown Miami by train for parades.

The Shrine convention in Miami is expected to bring more than 60,000 visitors to the state, Ebright said.

Noble Everett Clay, publicity director of Hialeah, is in charge of the stabling of the horses for the Mounted Patrol.

FIRST TESTS SUCCESSFUL IN PRODUCING NEWSPRINT FROM SUGAR CANE WASTE

First tests on a new process for manufacturing of newsprint from sugar cane waste at the Herty Foundation Laboratories, Savannah, Georgia, were pronounced successful last week.

Under the process the waste, known as bagasse, is converted to a strong, opaque and very white paper, much finer than ordinary newsprint, according to witnesses at the demonstration which included a number of Southern publishers and paper experts.

Joquin Dela Rosa, Cuban American inventor who perfected the process, was enthusiastic at results — in spite of trouble with the pulp which delayed start of the run.

Walter L. Hendrix, general manager of the pilot plant, was in charge of the demonstration. There were some complications at the beginning of the tests due to high alkaline content of the pulp but it was emphasized that the process could easily be corrected in full-scale commercial pulp manufacture.

Essential feature of the new process is what inventor Dela Rosa calls "pre-hydrolysis" of the waste. In this fashion the sugars remaining after the cane is crushed are broken down and removed prior to cooking of the pulp. This results, says the inventor in a cheaper, more practical process without significant change from present equipment and techniques.

John Perry, Jr., representing the Perry newspaper chain of Florida, was pleased with the demonstration and pronounced the paper "very good."

The programs, number of scholarship awards in each, and donors are: Field Crops and Frozen Foods, six each, International Harvester; Poultry, 10, Dearborn Motors; Soil and Water Conservation, eight, Firestone, and Tractor Maintenance, eight, American Oil Co. All these programs are directed by the Cooperative Extension Service.

Taxes Add Up
The average Florida car consumes 8,000 gallons of gasoline in its lifetime and, at present rates, its owner will pay the state and federal governments about $720 in taxes on that gasoline.

Of the original 31 boys who accepted patrol duty, 23 have continued throughout the year, he said. Captain of the crew for this year is Carl Gilliam.

FLORIDA DOES WELL FOR "CARE" CLIENTS

Residents of Florida contributed $948,308.04 toward the $125 million total in food and other supplies delivered overseas through CARE in the last six years, it was announced this week by Paul Comly French, CARE executive director.

French's CARE anniversary report discloses that between May 1946, when the non-profit, government approved service agency began deliveries, and December 31, 1951, Americans ordered 11,000,000 CARE packages for needy people in Europe, and Near East and Asia. Contents of the various packages included food, clothing material, blankets, knitting wool, household linen, soap, coal, shoes, agricultural handtools and, under the terms of the CARE-UNESCO Book Fund program, also scientific, technical and children's books.

The Florida contribution to total represents nearly 95,000 of these 11 million CARE packages. Orders for any of CARE's variety of packages, ranging in price from $4 to $18.75, continue to be received from all parts of Florida at CARE, 20 Broad St., New York 5.

EXTENDED SERVICE FOR INCREASING VOLUME OF LOANS PLANNED BY EPCA

G. E. Butler, Jr., W. E. Sexton, Directors, and George F. Walz, Secretary, of the FARMERS PRODUCTION CREDIT ASSOCIATION, have returned from St. Petersburg, where they attended the Florida Production Credit Association Directors' Conference.

Secretary, George F. Walz, reports that according to figures presented at the conference, the Florida Production Credit Associations are showing a substantial increase in membership, loans, and capital assets.

The associations reported a combined total net worth of $3,639,107 with an increase of nearly half a million dollars.

Principal speakers at the conference included John Ford, executive vice president of the Florida Farm Bureau Federation, and Arthur T. Edgate, Production Credit Commissioner, Washington.

Robert A. Darr, President of the Production Credit Corporation of Columbia, in speaking to the group challenged the officers and directors to strengthen the service of their respective associations by building up adequate capital and reserves to support an ever increasing volume of loans.

A. H. Reppard of Orlando and J. A. Nolan of Rutledge, Ga., members of the Farm Credit Board, attended the conference.

The Farmers' Production Credit Association has its main office at Miami and serves the counties of Duval, Broward, Palm Beach, Monroe, Okeechobee, St. Lucie, Indian River, Martin and Collier.

FLORIDIANS SHOW 28% SALARY INCREASE — PAY 50% INCREASE IN TAX

Floridians paid $1,065,324,001 last year for all government services.

This bill for government at all levels amounted to 31 per cent of the total earnings and income from all sources of the people of Florida in 1951, the Florida State Chamber of Commerce pointed out recently.

The 1951 government-cost total included internal revenue collections of $514,006,933; an estimated $170,000,000 in "hidden" federal taxes; $227,287,159 in state taxes; $88,535,409 in county taxes and $65,494,500 in municipal taxes.

The comparable 1950 full tax business review of the State Chamber's research and industrial division as being virtually $170 million below last year's figure. Compared with 1940, the 1951 total is greater by 503 per cent while the income of Floridians increased 289 per cent.

The increase in taxes since 1940 has been accompanied by a growing proportion of taxes paid to the federal government. In 1940 federal revenue collection and "hidden" taxes accounted for a little over one-third of all taxes paid in Florida. Last year the federal government's share of the total tax "take" was 64 per cent. State taxes made up 21 per cent and local taxes 15 per cent of the total.

"Temporary" $6,500.00 Tax

The "temporary" federal gasoline tax, recently increased from 1 1/2 to 2 cents a gallon, has cost American motorists close to $6,500,000 since its inception in 1932.

There were 162,800 more persons injured in U. S. motor vehicle accidents last year than in 1950.

OUTDOOR FLORIDA

By Herb Mosher
Spanish speaking anglers are a whole lot smarter than we are. Why? Because in Spanish there are two words for a fish—one word (el pez) for a fish swimming around in the water, another (el pescado) for a fish after it has been caught! All of which permits the suggestion that some fishermen never get into the "pescado" class at all. There should be two Spanish words for the two types of fishermen, viz. those who catch them and those who don't.

Florida's Naturalist, Ross Allen, sends this column an account of his adventures while catching "the largest fresh water scale fish in the world—the Arapaima." Ross has just returned to Silver Springs, from a tour of the West Indies and Central and South America. It was in British Guiana that the Arapaima gave Ross such a battle. One of his fishing trips netted 600 pounds of fresh water fish in just 40 minutes. One day

Ross hooked into the grandpa of all Arapaimas which giant simply pulled the boat around at high speed until it harpooned. This Arapaima was 7½ feet long, weighed 250 pounds. Four men finally pulled the fish onto a boat in Georgetown, now has the big fellow mounted. If Ross will only send me a picture of the Arapaima, it will be published in this column. And meanwhile we expect a movement in Florida to stock Lake Okeechobee with Arapaimas.

Through Central Florida via the scenic water route is the tour scheduled for June 6-7 by the Jacksonville Outboard club. Some 160 boats are expected to participate. Boats will be taken by trailer to Eureka, on the Oklawaha. From the river the boatmen will go through Lake Griffin, Haines Lake, Lake U.S. 90, Dead River and Lake Harris to the Leesburg Boat club. The trip will be a return trip a stop will be made at Silver Springs. Sports magazine, newspapers, radio stations and similar interests will participate in the cruise. Boatmen interested in joining up should contact the Jacksonville Outboard Club at 400 Spring Forest Street in Jacksonville.

Commercial Fishermen who were recently stopped from selling in Lakes Harris and Eureka by an injunction issued by Circuit Judge T. G. Futch. Tavares say they will appeal to the Florida Supreme Court.

Florida sportsmen are watching this case closely.
Next session of the Florida legislature is certain to see bills introduced to repeal the constitutional amendment under which the Game and Fresh Water Fish Commission operates. At the last session there was considerable agitation in this direction, but the move got nowhere because sportsmen were just about 100 per cent against it. This next time approximately 50 per cent of the sportsmen, as nearly as can be estimated, will be in favor of abolishing the amendment and starting all over with something new.

Marlin with spinning reel. That's right, it worked, at least once. Walker Cay sends this column the story. A 14-year-old boy, John Reynolds, fishing from the "Joker," hooked a white marlin. As he was using only 12-pound test monofilament spinning line on his spinning reel, Capt. Johnnie Thomas said he "might as well kiss the fish and line goodbye." However, the lad kept at it and finally wore the marlin down so that in one hour, fifteen minutes the big fish was hoisted. The marlin measured 7 feet, 10 inches in length, weighed 72 pounds. Where is Walker Cay? Well, it's a whole lot closer to Fort Pierce than Orlando is, for instance. Walker Cay is just across the Gulf Stream from Fort Pierce, or about 90 miles away. May Outdoor Life magazine features a story, "Paradise Isle," about this northernmost island in the Bahamas, and the amazing fishing here. Read it.

"Bank Loafers" season is at hand. What's a bank loafer? Well sir, a bank loafer is a large bluefish—a bluefish so large and fat and lazy that it just won't migrate northward, come summer, with smaller blues. No sir, a bank loafer prefers to stay in Florida from now on, feeding on the mullet and assorted unfortunates which swim along in the deep water where the big blue lies on the bottom, taking it easy. Generally speaking, a blue fish does not become a "bank loafer" until it reaches 10 pounds in weight. However, an 8 or 9-pound blue will probably get by as a "bank loafer" in most instances. Bank loafers prefer to lie in places where the water is deep right up next to the shoreline. A good place to catch them always has been the northern portion of Lake Worth up north of Lake Park. Another good spot is in the Loxahatchee, and the canal, near Jupiter Inlet. While I have never personally seen bank loafers taken from Indian River near Fort Pierce inlet, nevertheless, the lay of the land, or rather, the water, is good for bank loafers in the area. Capt. L. B. Thomas, down in West Palm Beach, is the acknowledged authority on "bank loafers" bluefish in Florida. These blues will hit plugs enthusiastically and put up a ferocious battle. Live bait is also much favored as bait. Some of these bank loafers will go up to 20 pounds in weight, so use stout tackle. Tarpon are good to eat when smoked, according to my friend, Capt. W. H. Fagen of the Bay-Wood Smoked Fisheries on the Causeway, Fort Pierce. This is indeed good news, what with the tarpon season at hand. It all ways has seemed wicked to waste so many fine tarpon by hanging them up to the sun for people to look at. While I have never eaten smoked tarpon I am looking forward to it. Smoked tarpon should "eat" like smoked herring, or sardines.

VETERANS MAY GET REPAIRS FOR BRACES

Emergency repairs to braces worn by more than 30,000 disabled veterans who suffered disabilities in service may now be granted.

These veterans are suffering from a variety of disabilities including paralysis of arms and legs from spinal cord injuries, gun shot wounds, unattended fractures and polio.

A new "Prosthetic Service Card — Orthopedic Braces" is now being issued to each eligible veteran, entitling him to this new service.

By using this card, a veteran will get prompt service from commercial concerns or the VA when he needs emergency or major repairs to his brace.

The veteran, upon presentation of the Prosthetic Service Card at any commercial brace or repair shop, may receive emergency repairs up to a limit of $15 for each brace.

The card will also establish on-the-spot eligibility for major repairs or emergency replacement of orthopedic braces at any of the 30 VA orthopedic shops located throughout the country.

Heretofore, veterans had to obtain prior approval from VA before emergency repairs to braces could be authorized.

Amputee veterans already are receiving this type of emergency repair service for prosthetic arms and legs from commercial concerns.

1952 will be virtually 50 per cent more than in 1950 and will have a peak daily demand of 440,000 gallons throughout the State, the Florida State Chamber of Commerce reported this week.

The 1950 sales volume in Florida was made up of 31,693,000 gallons of propane gas, 1,073,000 gallons of butane and 26,790,000 gallons of "mixtures."

Ninety per cent of the liquefied petroleum gas sold in Florida is consumed in household and commercial establishments. In 1950, this domestic-commercial demand was met by the sale of 27,315,000 gallons of propane, 26,088,000 gallons of "mixtures" and 838,000 gallons of butane.

This week's business review of the State Chamber's research and industrial division lists other uses of liquefied petroleum gas as 1,630 as 4,515,000 gallons by gas companies for enriching manufactured gas and for direct distribution through mains; 435,000 gallons by industrial plants; 347,000 gallons used as fuel in farm and other heavy equipment; and 22,000 gallons for miscellaneous purposes. Official reports on sales in Florida are not available prior to 1950.

Last year, 1,952,000 Americans were injured in traffic accidents.

It gives this old familiar sign new meaning

WOULD you be interested in getting one gallon free with each tankful of gasoline you buy?

Then we can tell you this: It will certainly be worth your while to read this brief story of Buick's new Airpower carburetor.

Truth is—a skillful driver can just about double the bonus we mention, if he makes the most of what this year's ROADMASTER has to offer.

The reason you can get such a bonus traces to a pair of simple facts:

- (1) It's a mixture of gasoline and air that gives you power.
- (2) Buick engineers have come up with a four-barrel automatic carburetor that lets you use more gallons of air per gallon of fuel.

Most of the time, only two of these barrels are needed—and they feed such a thrifty mixture that you use less gasoline at 40 mph than you'd formerly use at 30.

But—when you want a quick burst of eager power—you can double the air supply as well as the gasoline feed—and come up with the highest horsepower that Buick's Fireball 8 Engine ever delivered.

Of course, any man who's buying a car as fine as a ROADMASTER wants a lot more than extra miles from a tankful of gas.

He wants the distinction of extra room, extra comfort, richer fabrics and all the other refinements that make a car truly fine.

He wants to ride with solid security, confident poise and lordly silence.

And, while he may not admit it, he yearns for a car that's full of fun.

All this, we promise you, and more will be yours when you take the responsive wheel of a ROADMASTER.

How about doing that—soon?
